MISSOURI APPELLATE COURT OPINION SUMMARY
MISSOURI COURT OF APPEALS, WESTERN DISTRICT

KRISHNARAO V. REDNAM, M.D., Respondent, v.
STATE BOARD OF REGISTRATION FOR THE HEALING ARTS, Appellant

WD71290

Cole County

Before Division Three Judges: Karen K. Mitchell, P.J., James Edward Welsh and Mark D. Pfeiffer, JJ.

Three months after Krishnarao V. Rednam, M.D., was convicted of a felony, the Board of Registration for the Healing Arts entered an order automatically revoking his physician's license and barring him from applying for reinstatement for seven years. Rednam appealed to the circuit court. The circuit court affirmed the revocation of Rednam's license but reversed the Board's determination that he could not apply for reinstatement for seven years. The Board appeals.

REVERSED AND REMANDED.

Division Three holds:

The Board's order was insufficient under section 536.090, RSMo 2000, to allow for judicial review. The Board failed to set forth findings of fact concerning the only contested issue at Rednam's automatic revocation hearing, which was whether to impose a time bar on Rednam's applying for reinstatement and, if so, the length of such a bar. Although the circuit court also concluded that the Board's order was insufficient, the court erred by not remanding the case to the Board to state the finding or findings on which it based its decision to prohibit Rednam for applying for reinstatement of his license for seven years.
